

Is it a correct statement or not?

1. Triply qualified imputed existent is a triply qualified imputed existent.
2. One with pot is one with one with pot.
3. Definition is permanent.
4. If it is a definition, it is necessarily permanent.
5. Pemanent is the isolate of permanent.
6. The isolate of permanent is permanent.
7. If it is permanent, it is necessarily the isolate of permanent.
8. If it is the isolate of permanent, it is necessarily permanent.
9. Phenomenon non-different from pot is coextensive with the isolate of pot.
10. Phenomenon non-different from pot is the isolate of pot.
11. Phenomenon non-different from pot is a pot.
12. Pot is a phenomenon non-different from pot.
13. Pot is the isolate of pot.
14. If it is the isolate of pot, it is necessarily the isolate of pot.
15. If it is the isolate of pot, it is necessarily a pot
16. The definition of functioning thing is a definition.
17. The definition of functioning thing is a functioning thing.
18. The definition of functioning thing is able to perform a function.
19. Able to perform function is the definition of functioning thing.
20. If it is a definition, it is necessarily impermanent.
21. If it is the definition of functioning thing, it is necessarily impermanent.
22. One with pot and coextensive with the isolate of pot are mutually exclusive.

How many points between

A a is b & B whatever is a is necessarily b 4 points