Mobility Agreement form
Participant's name

Long-term contacts, improving knowledges in comparative law and teaching skills. Useful for improving teaching skills for my work in Estonia.

Activities to be carried out:

Lectures (comparative method, EU law); preparation of workshops (breach of contracts and property law), leading workshops; participation in round tables, presentations; working with students, supervising and instruction for workshops.

Lectures:

Estonian private law (in comparison to Swiss and Turkish law) - 4 h

EU private law harmonisation - 2 h

Property law - 2 h

Breach of contracts - 4 h

Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the staff member and on both institutions):

Members of both institutions will know better Estonian private law, develop professional skills, knowledges and competence (for research). In addition it will improve knowledges of students and make them know and understand other cultures and traditions. It will improve teachers teaching skills and rise students motivation to know better other legal systems, use more international exchange programs, have good contacts over the world which is important in their future professional activities.

II. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing⁷ this document, the teacher, the sending institution and the receiving institution confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution supports the staff teaching mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the teacher.

The teacher will share his/her experience, in particular its impact on his/her professional development and on the sending higher education institution, as a source of inspiration to others. The teacher and receiving institution will communicate to the sending institution any problems or changes regarding the proposed mobility programme or mobility period.
