Istanbul Turkey

Modern Turkey has a history dating back to the arrival of Turks into Anatolia (Asia Minor) in the 10th century from Central Asia. Present day Turkey spans two continents and 900 years of history, rich in cultural expansion, conquests and defeats, historical sites and treasures, culminating in a vibrant kaleidoscope of civilizations and cultural influences.

Istanbul has always been and continues to be a booming commercial centre and the largest city in Europe. The War of Independence began in 1919 which united Turkey within its current borders. A National Assembly was established in 1920 during the war. Mustafa Kemal Atatürk founded the Republic of Turkey in 1923. Modernization and secular reforms modeled on western European democracies, social and legal systems were giant steps toward the westernization of Turkey.

Studying in the cradle of civilization and at the crossroads of the modern world, Istanbul offers a unique experience.
