

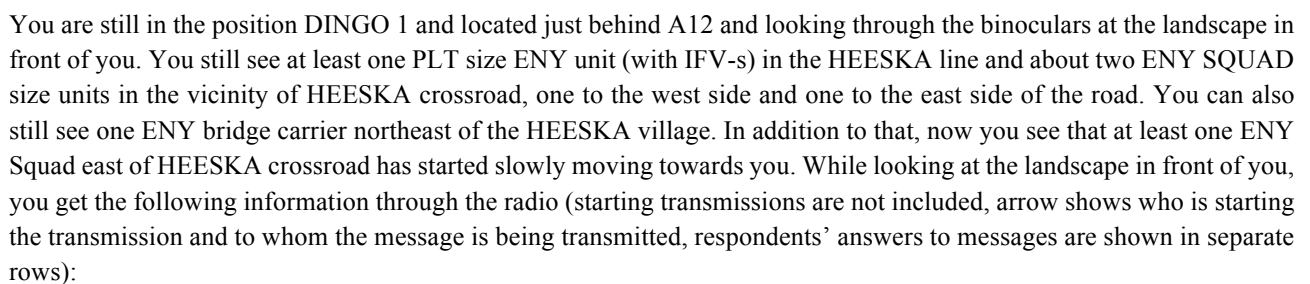

Map1. 1. PLT positions and ENY locations and activity near HEESKA for HD2 (given to paper and pencil group only)

During radio transmission you hear explosions in your right flank, you turn your heads towards explosions and you see that explosions are in the positions of A13.

A10: I will deal with it later, OUT.

A13 → A10: contact-contact, we are under ENY indirect fire, OVER.

You still see and hear explosions in your A13 positions. Shortly after you get additional information through radio:

A11 → A10: Direction 9 o'clock, ENY, approximately 10 man, BREAK, ENY is dismounted, moving towards our squad, BREAK, left wing, OVER.

A10: ROGER.

Through your binoculars you now see that both ENY squads have crossed the road south of village HEESKA and move slowly towards you.

A13 → A10: Sending CONTACTREP, OVER.

A10: SEND.

A13: A: 200 meters from our positions direction 1 o'clock, BREAK, B: ENY PLT with BMP-s, BREAK, C: attacking our position, influencing with IDF, BREAK, D: right now, BREAK, E: we have one WIA, lost his leg, BREAK, positions are partially destroyed, BREAK, continue with our task, OVER.

A10: ROGER.

While you hear shooting, you also continue to watch the landscape in front of you through your binoculars. You see that ENY has now advanced towards you and is now already south of the crossroad near HEESKA.

A90 → A10: confirm or reject, ENY has crossed EDGAR, OVER.

A10: wait 3, I will clarify and take back to you, OVER.

A90: do it quickly, OVER.

A10: OUT.

You continue to look for information for A90 and watch the landscape in front of you through your binoculars. Shortly you get additional information through radio:

A90 → A10: I have info from L90 that some sort of ENY engineer HPT roves there somewhere in your area, BREAK, our S50 is looking for it, wants to target and shoot it, BREAK, send me its exact coordinates, OVER.

A10: ROGER, I will clarify, OVER.

A90: hurry up, OUT.
