

SeRV – Victims Spots

Currently we have numerous TV and newspaper reportages on right wing tendencies amongst the police, racial profiling by the police, about racist and right extremist's movements in Germany, in certain regions and a number of reportages on right extremist and/or anti-Semitic motivated terrorist attacks plus homicide of politicians. We have collected them so far, the list is growing continuously as the public (media) interest seems to increase also. Here is an excerpt of some of those sources – which we have also taken into perspective for the analysis of victims voices (as secondary sources).

- 1) Documentary „Der schwache Staat“ (‘The weak state’) including voices of disappointed victims
