

Original engraving by Herbert Cole, 1918

National Self-Determination in the Twentieth Century

28-29 August, University of Tartu

Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies | Lossi 36-307

<https://sisu.ut.ee/selfdetermination/about?lang=en>

Monday, 28th August

9:30 Opening remarks (Eva Piirimäe, Xosé M. Núñez Seixas)

10:00 Historiography and Concepts

Eva Piirimäe (Univ. Tartu), The Politics of the Historiography of National Self-Determination

11:00 Self-Determination before and after WWI

Hent Kalmo (Univ. Tartu), Self-Determination and its Competitors: Changing Justifications for Political Rule before the First World War

Emmanuel Dalle Mulle (Univ. Complutense), Minorities: Did It All begin in 1919? Continuities and discontinuities in identifying heterogeneity in Europe and beyond before and after World War

Oliver Rowe (Univ. Tartu), For a United Russia? The White Movement and National Self-determination, 1918-1920

15:00 The Wilsonian legacy and the interwar period

Francesca Zantedeschi (Univ. Amsterdam), World War I, National Self-Determination and its Side-Effects on Western European Micro-Nationalisms

Liisi Veski (Univ. Tartu), Building the Organic State in 1930s Estonia and in the Wider Baltic Sea Region – Concepts, Models and Sources

Maximiliano Fuentes (Univ. Girona), From the “Wilsonian Moment” to the “Wilsonian Disappointment”: Radical Liberalism in Spain and Argentina after World War I

Tuesday, 29th August

10:00 National Self-Determination during the Cold War

Kaarel Piirimäe (Univ. Tartu), Baltic Appeal to the United Nations and the Failed Attempt to Spread Anti-Colonial Self-Determination to Europe, 1965-1971

Xosé M. Núñez Seixas (Univ. Santiago de Compostela), Anti-Colonial Self-Determination in Europe? The ‘New Wave’ of National Self-Determination in Western European Peripheries, 1955-1975

David Smith (Univ. Glasgow), Europe’s ‘Poor Relations’? The Federal Union of European Nationalities and the Minority Question after 1945

13:00 Closing remarks

UNIVERSITY OF TARTU
Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies

UNIVERSIDADE
DE SANTIAGO
DE COMPOSTELA

Eesti Teadusagentuur
Estonian Research Council