

THURSDAY 21.05		1. SESSION		Mental Health & Resilience		Advocacy & Local Journalism		1. SESSION		THURSDAY 21.05
11.45-13.00		Mod 1: Anne Leppäjärvi		Ángeles Fernández Barrero, José Luis Rojas Torrijos Reporting Tragedy, Preserving Well Being: Mental Health Education for Journalists in Spain		Stefaan Anrys From the Classroom to the Coast: Cultivating Ocean Journalism		Mod 2: Cristina Nistor		11.45-13.00
				Agnieszka Catek, Agnieszka Szymańska The Journalist's Agency as a Source of Motivation: Shaping Attitudes Through the Promotion of Good Practices		Annette Holm, Helge Kvam DMIX-laboratory: New skills - new identity for journalist-students. Experiences from producing journalism in collaboration with communities.
				Jari Väliverronen, Asbjørn Slot Jørgensen, Jan Fredrik Hovden, Liv Iren Hognestad, Valgerður Anna Jóhannsdóttir, Kristina Riegert Stability and growing insecurity: Nordic journalism students' views on journalism and journalism education		Linda Jense Get close and personal with your audience: building journalistic engagement in students through anthropological methods and critical reflection
14.15-15.30		Mod 1: Carlien Touwen		Richard Brandt Aspiration equals reality?!: Comparing economic journalism skills taught in journalism education with the requirements of professional journalism practice in Germany – with a special focus on journalistic resilience and happiness		Miguel Crespo Journalism training in the context of AI: uncertainty, adaptation and the knowledge gap in Portuguese newsrooms		Mod 2: Will Cope		14.15-15.30
				Radu Meza, Andreea Mogoș, George Prundaru The End of Journalism and Digital Media Education: Integrating soft skills and design-thinking-oriented practicum		Arnau Segura Montagut Bridging the Classroom and the Newsroom: Professional and Real Spaces for Present and Future Journalists
				Soetkin Bulcke A job of life long learning, going places and satisfying curiosity: what's not to like?		Yana Shekeriak-Kushka Data, war, AI, and new media: how we study journalism in Lviv University
				Competences/Skills/Values		AI/data
FRIDAY 22.05		Mod 1: Tiko Tsoimala		Marijke Kolk Teaching Trauma-Aware Journalism		Wouter Frateur Take, a new European news initiative		Mod 2: Ragne Kõuts-Klemm		FRIDAY 22.05
				Anne Leppäjärvi Insights into Journalistic Resilience: A Study on Journalism Students' Expectations and Solutions for Professional Challenges and Career Sustainability		Ana Keshelashvili, Will Cope Communities of Practice and Professional Identity Formation in Journalism Education: Learning through a Transnational World Cup Podcast Project
				Karmen Laur Creating the course „Journalist and Resilience“		Sinziana-Maria Jurau Legal Literacy as a Foundation for Student Entrepreneurship in the AI Era
				Mental Health & Resilience		Newsroom & Uni/Bridging the Gap
11.45-13.00		Mod 2: Nadia Viissers		José Luis Rojas Torrijos Teaching sports journalism in Spain: insights and challenges		Thijs van den Houdt Struggling with the Self and the Performative; Students Negotiating Detachment and Relationality		Mod 2: Mariju Himma		11.45-13.00
				Bram Crols Zen and the art of embracing documentaries as resilience		Vallo Nuust Metaphor as a Survival Strategy of Journalistic Language: Estonian Journalism 1924–2024
				Marketa Mala Innovative approaches to teaching journalism: storytelling, critical engagement, motivation		Ragne Kõuts-Klemm Working as a Russian-speaking journalist in Estonia: reasons to struggle and reasons to be happy
14.15-15.15		Workshop		WORKSHOP 1		WORKSHOP 2		Workshop		14.15-15.15
				Laurence de la Porte Building Belonging in Journalism Education: Exchanging Practices for First-Year Motivation and Engagement		Maria Murumaa-Mengel, Maia Klaassen How to build information resilience at the age of information disorders
15.15-15.30		Closing & wrap up (215)										15.15-15.30	